

She is focusing more on her artistry and love of geology.

McClelland currently shows her art at the Birthplace of Country Music Museum in Bristol, Virginia, and the Cindy Saadeh Gallery in downtown Kingsport, Tennessee.

In October, too, she showed her work at the Art on 16 Gallery in Marion, Virginia.

Now, until Nov. 27, her art can be found on the walls of the Clem Allison Gallery at Tusculum University in Greeneville, Tennessee, about one hour south of downtown Bristol.

She calls this "The Art of Geology."

McClelland obtains the look of natural rocks, gems or minerals through layering and use of gold and silver leaf, along with many kinds of paints.
